Docket No. RM2015-7

ORDER EXTENDING COMMENT DEADLINES

(Issued March 11, 2015)

Order No. 2294 established deadlines of March 11, 2015, and April 8, 2015, respectively, for comments and reply comments in this docket.¹ Pursuant to Commission rule 3001.21, the Public Representative seeks, on behalf of all interested persons, a one-week extension of the initial deadline for several reasons, including recent weather-related disruptions in Federal government operations.² The Postal Service takes no position on the extension of the deadline for initial comments, but ¹ See Notice and Order on Petition for Rulemaking (Proposal Thirteen), December 18, 2014, at 3 (Order No. 2294).

² Motion for Extension of Time to File Comments, March 9, 2015, at 1-2 (Motion). The Public Representative states that she is not requesting an extension of the date for filing reply comments. Motion at 2.

asserts that if the Motion is granted, the Commission should also allow the four full weeks contemplated by Order No. 2294 for filing reply comments.³

Both the Motion and the Postal Service Response set out good cause for extension of the original filing dates. The additional time will not unduly delay the proceeding, nor give rise to unreasonable prejudice or other harm. Accordingly, the Motion is granted, as is the request in the Postal Service Response for four full weeks to file reply comments. The revised dates for filing comments and reply comments are March 18, 2015, and April 15, 2015, respectively.

It is ordered:

1. The Motion for Extension of Time to File Comments, filed March 9, 2015, is granted with respect to a revised date for filing initial comments.
2. The request in the Response of the United States Postal Service to Motion of the Public Representative for Extension of Time to File Comments, filed March 10, 2015, for maintenance of a full four-week period for filing reply comments is granted.
3. The revised date for filing comments is March 18, 2015.
4. The revised date for filing reply comments is April 15, 2015.

By the Commission.
